My Review

your say at your review

A review is a meeting with you to discuss how you're getting on, and how you feel about where you live. It is a chance for you and those people who are responsible for you to share what has been happening and plan for the future.

This meeting is your meeting

These booklets are personal and can help you decide what you may like to be discussed. To try and make the best plans for you, we still need you to answer the questions in this booklet.
